

E-Empowerment Weblinks

<http://news.bbc.co.uk> BBC News

<http://www.channel4.com/news> Channel 4 News

<http://www.itn.co.uk> ITN news website

<http://www.direct.gov.uk> main government website

<http://www.ind.homeoffice.gov.uk> Immigration and Nationality

<http://www.statistics.gov.uk/> Official statistics

<http://www.official-documents.co.uk> Information about government publications

<http://ec.europa.eu/youreurope/> Information about Europe

<http://www.csci.org.uk> Commission for Social Care Inspection

<http://www.maturetimes.co.uk> Information resource for older people

<http://www.helptheaged.org.uk/> Help the Aged website

<http://www.pensionsadvisoryservice.org.uk> Non-profit independent advice on pensions

<http://www.hairnet.org> Site offering assistance with digital inclusion for older people

<http://www.housingcare.org> Site offering advice on housing options

<http://www.upmystreet.com> Website with lots of information about quality of life in your area

<http://www.npcuk.org> National Pensioners Convention website

<http://www.pensionersforum.co.uk> Site where you can exchange ideas and comments online

<http://www.tradingstandards.gov.uk> Trading Standards website

<http://www.faircomment.com> Site to comment on consumer issues

<http://www.cdf.org.uk> Site on community development

<http://www.birmingham.gov.uk/planningapplications> Forms and lists of planning applications

<http://www.birmingham.gov.uk/buildingconservation> Conservation of buildings

<http://www.royalsoc.ac.uk> Objective information on global warming

<http://www.greenseniors.org> Organisation promoting environmental action for older people

Links supplied by Acocks Green Library to support 'Wired up to Wellbeing' Module 1 'E-Empowerment'.